

ADULT FINANCIAL DISASTER ASSISTANCE DESK AID

Eligibility Requirements for Disaster Assistance

1. Be approved for or receiving an Adult Financial grant payment at the time of the declared disaster.
2. Have an emergent need related to the disaster, such as a threat to health or safety, lack of food, clothing, shelter, transportation, personal or medical care, or other unmet expenses.

Disaster Assistance for Eligible Adult Financial Clients

- Eligibility: Available to Adult Financial Clients affected by a declared disaster.
- Application Methods: Clients can apply verbally or in writing to the county department.
- Form Option: Counties may use the State-developed “AF Disaster Assistance Request” form.

Maximum Adult Financial Disaster Assistance

- Per Disaster: Maximum assistance per client is $2,000.
- Multiple Disasters: For simultaneous disasters, clients can receive $2,000 per disaster.
- Additional Support: County departments may provide extra assistance through general assistance programs or other resources.

County Disaster Assistance Procedures

- Needs Assessment: Counties assess the client’s disaster-related needs and provide referrals for additional assistance.
- Verification: Verification is not needed unless the request is deemed questionable by the county.
- Timely Processing: Disaster assistance requests must be processed within five(5) business days to determine eligibility.
- Notification: Approval or denial is communicated to the client via CBMS.
