

HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION: ANCILLARY MEMBERS

Ancillary members are people in the household who won't be considered for eligibility determination.

- Ancillary members' income and/or resources will not be counted.
- They will not receive benefits.
- Essentially, we're treating ancillary members as members who've left the house by means other than death or divorce.
- Note: Adult Financial and Colorado Works do not use ancillary fields in CBMS.

If you have a case where a member would be considered ancillary, select Yes for the Ancillary Member radio button.

- Interfaces will continue to pull for these people until they're marked ancillary.
