

Consolidated Work Notice

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Able Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) notification will be replaced with the Consolidated Work Notice.

See below to get a quick review on how to trigger this notification:

DATA ENTRY

Look for the CBMS Work Registration Page WBT in COLearn, under the section with the same name, to learn more about the data entry.

When is the Consolidated Work Notice Triggered?

Example 1

Clara is approved for SNAP. She is 36 years old and has two kids of 7 and 11 years old. The worker must trigger the Consolidated Work Notice with Basic Work Rules for Clara, because she has no work exemptions and is not an ABAWD.

Example 2

Marcelo is approved for SNAP. He is 49 years old. He reported that his youngest son turned 18. Marcelo is now an ABAWD and does not have a qualifying work exemption or an ABAWD Exemption. The worker must trigger a Consolidated Work Notice with Basic Work Rules and Time Limit Rules.

ABAWDs are clients between 18-54 years of age, physically and/or mentally able to work, and do not have anyone under the age of 18 as part of their SNAP household.
