

SNAP Reinstatement Waiver Project #12755

Scenario 1:

Results:

- ✓ Action: FA eligibility worker will rescind the case because the verification was provided by the client before the case was closed and the county was untimely in processing the verification that would have prevented the closure.
- ✓ Benefits will begin January 1st.
- ✓ Benefits will continue until the end of the previously established certification period, March 31st

Scenario 2:

Results:

- ✓ Action: FA eligibility worker will reinstate the case because verification was received within 30 days from the date of closure and there is at least one month left in the previously established certification period.
- ✓ Reinstated benefits begin January 4th.
- ✓ Benefits will continue until the end of the previously established certification period, March 31st.

Scenario 3:

SNAP Reinstatement Waiver Project #12755

Scenario 3 continued:

Results:

- ✓ Action: FA eligibility worker will reinstate the case because verification was received within 30 days from the date of closure, there is at least one month left in the previously established certification period, and the RRR has not been started or received.
- ✓ Reinstatement benefits begin on February 23rd.
- ✓ Benefits will continue until the end of the previously established certification period, March 31st.

*If the RRR had been received and started for this scenario, reinstatement is not appropriate

Scenario 4:

Results:

- ✓ Action: FA eligibility worker will reinstate the case because verification was received within 30 days from the date of closure and there is at least one month left in the previously established certification period.
- ✓ Reinstated benefits will begin on January 20th.
- ✓ Benefits will continue until the end of the previously established certification period, March 31st.

Scenario 5:

Results:

- ✓ Action: FA eligibility worker will use reinstatement to reevaluate eligibility based on the information reported by the household.
- ✓ If the household submits additional information in an attempt to show they are eligible, that documentation should be evaluated and a decision made.
- ✓ If that decision results in ineligibility, then another closure notice should be sent based on the new information
